CHAPTER AWARDS

PRESIDENT'S SPECIAL ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

PRESIDENT'S EXCELLENCE IN LEADERSHIP – KRISTEN SCHNATTERLY, SSA/OIG

Ms. Schnatterly is someone who embodies the best in financial management and accountability. Kristen currently serves as the Secretary in the Baltimore Chapter of the Association of Government Accountants, as well as Executive Officer in the Social Security Administration's Office of the Inspector General, Office of Audit. Kristen has been a member of the Chapter for more than a decade and has served on the Executive Board in several capacities including as co-editor of the newsletter.

She has more than 15 years of experience in the accountability field, having started her career as an auditor in the Department of Transportation's Office of the Inspector General. She has received numerous performance and honor awards recognizing her contributions to the success of the office.

Ms. Schnatterly is an avid supporter of the local AGA chapter and is a self-starter who exemplifies integrity and holds both her and her staff to high level of accountability. Her interpersonal skills are exceptional and she is often called upon to represent the OIG at meetings with senior governmental officials and professional organizations.

FUTURE LEADERSHIP AWARD – YVASNE SIMMONS, SSA/OIG

Ms. Simmons has made several large contributions to the success of the Office of Audit. In FY 2009, the OIG was tasked with completing the annual financial statement audit. In prior years, the OIG employed contract auditors to perform this work. Ms. Simmons' excellent financial skills and prior audit experience made her a critical member of the financial audit team. With the assistance of Ms. Simmons, the OIG successfully completed the FY 2009 financial statement audit on schedule. Starting in FY 2010, the OIG contracted with Grant Thornton (GT) to complete the annual financial statement audit. Ms. Simmons did an excellent job ensuring GT met all of the applicable auditing standards. She also ensured that all of the deliverables were completed accurately and on time. With the assistance of Ms. Simmons, the FY 2010 financial statement audit was another success.

EXCELLENCE IN CONTRIBUTION – LETHA HOLLIDAY, SSA

Ms. Holliday has helped the chapter continue to get quality locations for our meetings at an affordable price. Working under the constraints of severe agency spending cuts, Ms. Holliday has been able to find quality locations for our meetings; has negotiated for favorable rates for us; and is always willing to do whatever it takes for the chapter. Her “can do” attitude is an asset to our chapter.

PDC SCHOLARSHIP – JOANNE WHITE-BURNETT, CITY OF BALTIMORE

The chapter awarded the PDC Scholarship to Ms. White-Burnett as an appreciation for all she does for our chapter. She has served on the Education Committee for numerous years and is instrumental in attaining high caliber speakers for our training session.
